

THE BEST INDIA INK.

It is Redolent of Musk. Bright With Gold and Very Costly.

"This India ink," said the clever Chinese art student, "has no more right to be called Indian than your American redskins have to that name, for India ink all comes from China, and India never produced a stick of it."

"Anhui, my own province, is the one where India ink is made. The best of the ink is kept at home for the use of the royal scribes and the official literati. It is only the lower grade that is exported. This lower grade sells at wholesale in Anhui for $1,500 a ton.

"The very best grade of India ink, the kind rich with gold, is worth $75,000 a ton.

"The constituents of India ink are colza oil, pork fat, lampblack, glue, musk, gold leaf and the oil of a poisonous tree, the heng, which grows only in the Yangtse valley.

"After the admixture of the oils the lampblack, the fat and the glue, the resultant paste is beaten for many hours with steel hammers upon wooden anvils, and during that long beating certain quantities of musk and of gold leaf are added, the musk to give the ink perfume, the gold to give it luster.

"Afterward the ink is dried for three weeks in molds. The stocks are then decorated, the most artistic scribes gilding them with very beautiful Chinese characters.

"There is no ink worthy to be mentioned in the same breath with ours, an ink redolent of musk and bright with gold."—Exchange.

THE RESTLESS MORO.

He is Never Happy Unless on a Marauding Expedition.

The Moro is brave to fearlessness, a born pirate and essentially a first class fighting man. He is never happy unless on a marauding expedition and stealing from his neighbors, friends and foes alike. The chief who is the most successful thief is the most respected and the most powerful among chiefs.

The Moro trades with his neighbors on market days in the various coins of the realm and foreign moneys. At other times he is a free ocean rover, extending his trading voyages as far north as the islands of Negros and Panay, south to the Celebes and Borneo and westerly to the Palawan. He is the most successful of smugglers, and a little act of piracy when chance offers goes without mention. The Moro is the most perfect of aquatic beings, the most skillful small boat sailor or large "prau" navigator extant. He can no more drown than can a fish. There is no record of a drowned Moro. He can dive to the bottom of the sea at depths of from twenty-five to a hundred feet for the valuable mother-of-pearl shell, and his life is largely lived at sea from infancy. Along the coast many of the Moro villages are built over the water.—Colonel Owen J. Sweet, U. S. A., in Harper's Weekly.

Gilley Stains.

"What are you doing, Willie?" asks the little sister, noticing Willie washing jam from his hands and face.

"S-sh," Willie replies, industriously scrubbing. "I got into the pantry while mamma was out, and now I'm taking an immunity bath."—Chicago Post.

The Wood Pile.

Proofreader—You speak here of Nutrich's house as "a magnificent marble pile." Editor—Well? Proofreader—Well, it isn't marble at all. It's a frame building. Editor—That so? Then just substitute "wood" for "marble."—Philadelphia Press.
